

Newsletter – December 2025

Message from the Chair

Welcome to our newsletter! As we head to a new year and shorter days, the village hall remains a welcome Broad Chalke beacon for meetings, events and family gatherings. And what a fantastic turnout we had for our recent film night – Allied. Sand, seduction, more sand and Brad Pitt. What a great, enjoyable evening it was.

A huge thank you to everyone who volunteers their time. You are truly the heart of the Village Hall. With a great line up of events coming up, its time to buy your tickets and make that diary entry.

Current & Upcoming Events

Date & Time	Ticket	Details
28 November 19:00 for 19:30	£15	Eastern Wisdom in a Western World – An illustrated talk by Simon Lamb – includes a glass of prosecco & light bite
3 December 19:00 - 21:00	£6	Film Night – The Salt Path – A couple lose their home, contend with a terminal illness and embark on a year-long coastal trek
19 December 18:30 – 20:30	£12 adult £6 child	PINOCCIO – Family fun at Christmas time. A naughty wooden puppet gets into trouble, disobeys his father, forgets his promises, and skips through life looking for fun ... just like a "real boy." Until he learns that to become truly real, he must open his heart and think of others.

COMING SOON

Subject to licensing and associated costs, we hope to stream Royal Opera House ballet and opera productions sometime in the new year.
